APPENDIX TO THE GENERAL PLAN (COUNTRY) COLD WAR

ANNEX H, TRAINING SUPPORT

Reference: Annex H, Training Support Planning Guide

25X1

1. Requirements for the training effort in support of the country appendix to the general plan are derived from a qualitative and quantitative analysis of both the available and additionally required manpower allotments for each project in terms of their capacities to meet the stated operational objectives in each case. In addition, the nature of the operational objectives to be met may be such that existing courses of instruction require modification or that new courses of instruction must be developed, staffed, and presented in accordance with the planning and operational timetable.

2. Fulfillment of the training support requirements for a given country appendix may involve expansion of existing or establishment of training bases, and a correspondingly increased^{x1} load upon available psychological testing, evaluation and assessment procedures.

3. The technique of planning for training support and the method of expressing training support requirements is prescribed in the reference.

4. Each country appendix will therefore contain a training annex, prepared in accordance with the provisions of the reference, by the country desk concerned in collaboration with the Office of Training. The members of the Clandestine Services Training Committee will be the channel of communication and coordinating mechanism between the Office of Training and the Staffs and Divisions of DD/P for the development of the Training Support Annex to the Country Appendices.
